The Music Man

Book and Music by Meredith Wilson
August 9 to September 1, 2019

Meredith Willson's six-time Tony Award-winning 1957 musical comedy follows smooth-talking traveling salesman, Harold Hill, who arrives in the tight-knit town of River City planning to con the townspeople, and whose plan is foiled when the stern and skeptical local librarian, Marian Paroo, doesn't buy his story. As Harold struggles to keep his plan in focus, he slowly falls not just for the librarian, but for the people of the town he had meant to swindle.

The Mousetrap

By Agatha Christie
October 4 to 20, 2019

A group of guests gather in a country house, cut off by a blizzard, only to realize - to their horror - that there is a murderer in their midst. One by one, the characters reveal their questionable pasts in the isolation of the house, until at the last, nerve-wracking instant when the identity and the motive are finally revealed. Since its debut in 1952, The Mousetrap has become the longest running play in the history of London's West End with the 25,000th performance taking place on 18 November 2012.

Savannah Sipping Society

By Jessie Jones, Nicholas Hope, & Jamie Wooten
November 8 to 24, 2019

This delightful and upbeat comedy features four unique Southern women who are drawn together by their longing to escape the humdrum of their every-day lives, making the decision that it's about time they renew their zest for living, and perhaps even for love. Through laughter, libations, and misadventure, the women find lasting friendships in one another, and a determination to live life in the present.

The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee

Music and Lyrics by William Finn
Book by Rachael Sheinkin
February 7 to March 1, 2020

Winner of the Tony and the Drama Desk Awards for Best Book, this hilarious and jubilant musical comedy features a group of six awkward young students competing at the annual spelling bee. In between the rounds of the contest, the students delve into an eclectic and touching mix of stories from their lives at home, revealing personal details about themselves that together show the audience that perhaps winning is not, after all, the most important thing.

Venus In Fur

By David Ives
March 20 to April 5, 2020

Writer and director Thomas Novachek has suffered through a long day of horrible auditions for his play adaptation the 19th-century sadomasochistic novel Venus in Fur. Then in walks a mysterious actress, Vanda, to his audition room. The audition suddenly escalates into a tense and erotic power play, with the lines between the stage and reality increasingly blurred in this complex and intelligent commentary on gender roles in society.

A Streetcar Named Desire

By Tennessee Williams
April 24 to May 10, 2020

Full of heart-wrenching passion, Streetcar is 20th-century American theatre at its finest. It tells the story of a neurotic and fragile Southern belle, Blanche DuBois, whose faded gentility clashes with her sister Stella's gruff and brutish husband, Stanley Kowalski, precipitating a tragic downward spiral.

A Streetcar Named Desire

Vanya and Sonia and Masha and Spike

Vanya & Sonia & Masha & Spike

By Christopher Durang
June 12 to 28, 2020

Siblings Vanya and Sonia have never left the confines of their childhood home, while their sister Masha has been traveling the world as a successful movie star. Masha and her hot young boy toy, Spike, pay a surprise visit to the household. The generally quiet household is thrown into disarray as its inhabitants are caught up in the possibility of escape.
